

RESOURCES

The Mill provides month-to-month co-working and office space for start-ups to work and collaborate with other entrepreneurs in a professional office environment, complete with training, podcast studio and boardrooms. The Mill teaches early-stage entrepreneurship classes designed to accelerate your go-to-market strategy through customer discovery, product-market fit and successful launch and business-scaling strategies. themillatslcc.com

Contact: jon.beutler@slcc.edu

The Salt Lake Small Business Development Center delivers free expert business advising and consulting to small business owners who need advice, direction, or education. Services include one-on-one counseling, online education, specialized workshops, market research, financial advising, and access to additional small business resources and partners. utahsbdc.org

Contact: jim.herrin@slcc.edu

Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses is a no-cost business education program designed to help established businesses scale. The experiential learning environment is centered around education, access to capital and a vast resource network. Participants engage in a 15-week accelerated, in-person course that offers business advising, expert instruction, as well as access to a national alumni network upon course completion. 10ksbapply.com

Contact: tanasia.valdez@slcc.edu

The Utah Veteran Business Resource Center provides comprehensive support and resources to entrepreneurial veterans, active duty, reservists, guard members and military spouses. Our mission is to foster innovation, resilience, and growth within the military community through business ownership. Services include expert one-to-one mentorship and advising, online and in-person training courses, networking with other veterans and access to the broader national veteran network of support services. utahvbrc.org

Contact: bguertl1@slcc.edu

The Mill provides an executive training course designed to grow small businesses outside the US by providing 10 global education sessions taught by subject matter experts. Our global education resources extend to importing workshops, access to trade and foreign diplomats and in-country resources. Programming is designed to connect business owners to key partners providing international growth opportunities for success. themillatslcc.com/education/global

Contact: venita.ross@slcc.edu

Visit Us:

SLCC Miller Campus, 9690 South
300 West, Sandy, Utah 84070

LEARN MORE

www.themillatslcc.com